In the Briar Patch
With

RENÉE HANNA

Renée uses her love for the written word and her boundless energy to guarantee an exciting program. In order to bring her stories to life for the listeners she uses stories that allow her to include singing, creative movement, costumes, puppets, and props. Renée's repertoire includes personal stories, folk tales, seasonal stories, fairy tales, fables, poetry and literary tales from around the world. Renée dresses as costumed characters for the young and young at heart.
